Letter of Recommendation for Mr. Faraz Motaghedi

Dear Board of Admissions,

I am privileged to write in support of my student, Faraz Motaghdedi. Faraz studied in my Oral Expression of Stories, Teaching Methodology, Linguistics, Writing Essays, and Research classes for close to three years, during which time I witnessed his tremendous growth and development. This development came not only in the areas of human rights and forced child labor, but in maturity and character as well.

Faraz entered University of Mazandaran at the young age of 18, a precocious high school graduate. He soon learnt the valuable trait of humility, and enjoyed the opportunity to learn from his older peers and his professors.

Faraz quickly learnt to manage his time, work in group situations under strict deadlines, and to recognize the importance of a strong work ethic, persistence, and intellectual integrity. I recommend Faraz to your M.S. in Global Affairs program and any related scholarship with absolute confidence. He has made me proud, as his teacher and I am sure he will continue to do so as he grows in your human rights and international relations programs and beyond.

In over twenty years of teaching, I have known other students with talent equivalent to his. But many of them lacked his good nature and humility, and few demonstrated the genuine intellectual curiosity that he has exhibited over and over -- a curiosity that is often accompanied by his excitement or enthusiasm for an idea, an author, and a good work on politics and human rights.

Faraz is a motivated young man of numerous talents and considerable self-discipline. He is enthusiastic, trusting and trustworthy. Please contact me if you happen to need some further information about him. Thank you for the opportunity of correspondence.

Sincerely Yours,
Fatemeh Khonamri
